RULING BY THE CHAIR

“Mr. Sauvageau, I have to inform you that BQ-49 in its current form is inadmissible. It's unfortunate, but it does propose to increase the membership for public interest commissions. That brings it into conflict with the royal recommendation that is attached to this bill that determines the level of expenditure, and committees are not allowed to rule in those areas. So I would suggest that we simply not proceed with this.

(...)

According to page 655 of Marleau and Monpetit:

A amendment must not offend the financial initiative of the Crown. An amendment is therefore inadmissible if it imposes a charge on the public treasury, or if it extends the objects of purposes, or relaxes the conditions and qualifications as expressed in the royal recommendation.

So it is the ruling--.”
